Happiness comes in waves
it'll find you again one day

An open ear is the only believable sign of an open heart.

PIANO

The people who matter will recognise who you are.

A landscape photograph of a fjord at sunset. The sky is filled with warm, orange and pink clouds. In the foreground, there's a dark, rocky shoreline with some low-lying vegetation. The water of the fjord reflects the colors of the sky. In the middle ground, a small town with numerous houses is nestled among green hills. The background features a range of majestic, rugged mountains. A small white boat is visible on the water.

fools FALL in love , the wise RISE in it

Change is the constant the signal for rebirth
the egg of the phoenix

And in her smile I see something more beautiful than the stars

EXTRAORDINARY

Don't chase people who don't care about losing you

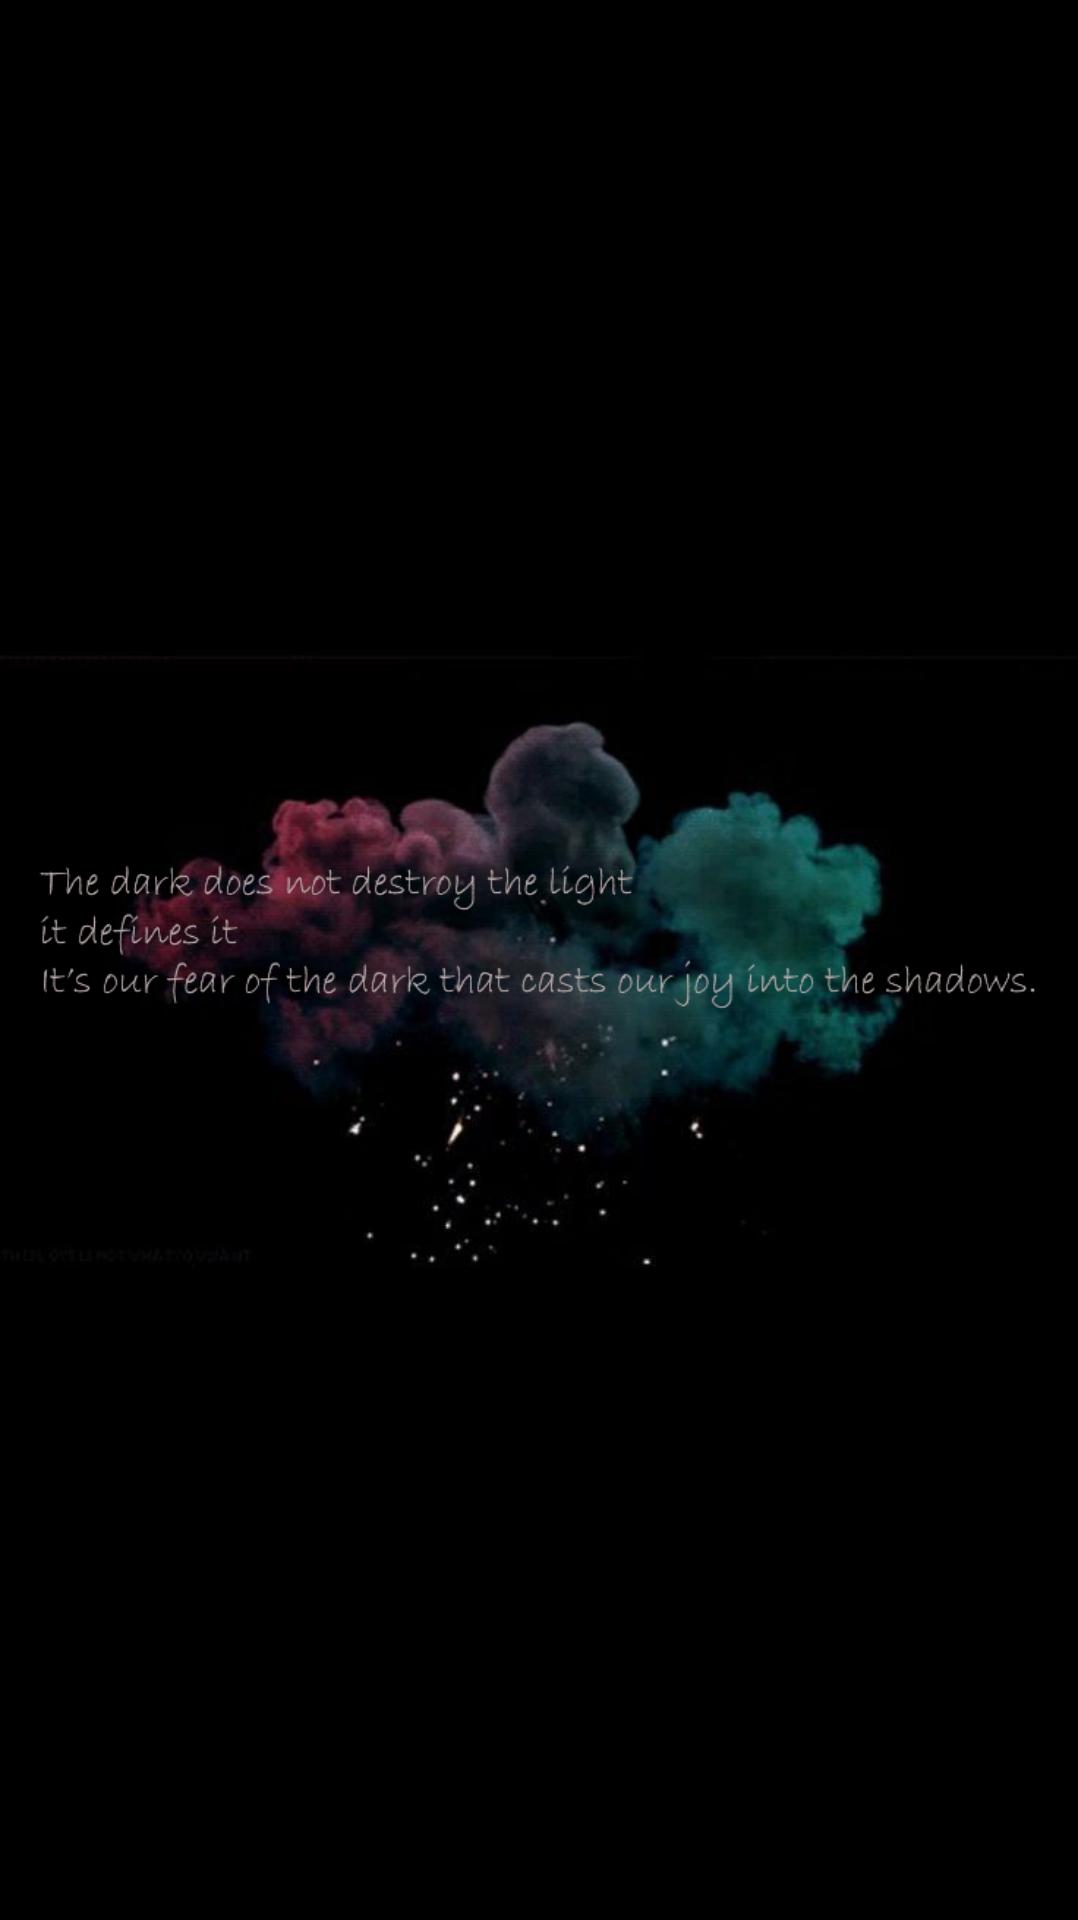

If I love myself I love you: if I love you I love myself

The words that enlighten the soul
Are more precious than jewels

What's SILENT is LISTENING.
What's BROKEN isn't DEAD.
What's HURTING isn't FOREVER.
What's YOURS, is ALWAYS COMING

The dark does not destroy the light

it defines it

It's our fear of the dark that casts our joy into the shadows.

Promise me you'll always remember You're braver than you believe and stronger than you seem.

Everything has beauty,
but not everyone sees it.

A photograph taken from an interior room at night, looking out through a window. The window frame is visible on the left. Outside, a city skyline is seen under a dark sky. Numerous windows of buildings are lit up with warm yellow and orange light, creating a pattern of glowing rectangles. In the foreground, the dark, textured surface of a bed or sofa is visible.

Tell the stars, I can shine for myself

Every saint has a past and every sinner has a future

Every human walks around with a certain kind of sadness.

They may not wear it on their sleeves,

But it's there if you look deep.

A silhouette of a person's head and shoulders against a dramatic sunset sky. The sky is filled with large, billowing clouds colored in shades of orange, yellow, and white, set against a dark blue background.

But whoever said that we always need a large place to get lost

Love is the most important thing in our lives, a passion for which we would fight or die, and yet we're reluctant to linger over its names. Without a supple vocabulary, we can't even talk or think about it directly.

Hurting someone can be as easy as throwing a stone in the sea
But do you have any idea how deep that stone can go?
SO BE NICE

I will shine even if no one sees my light

Accept yourself and this world will have to.

stop back to people who you had to leave in the first place.
